

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

Dec 08 Main Library
201 Peterson, 7-9 pm

A Caribbean Melting Pot: Trinidad and Tobago

Join Kristal Pouching this month for a virtual tour of her home in Trinidad and Tobago. Experience the rhythm and tempo of Carnival contrasted against the calm, soothing embrace of the Caribbean Sea. View white sand beaches, unspoiled coral reefs and tropical rainforests, amidst a booming manufacturing and petrochemical industry. Learn of Trinidad's own struggle against the wave of terrorism, crime and economic downturn of the present age.

PLEASE NOTE: There is only one presentation in December.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS

We hope that by now your international student feels very much at home with you, and that you are all enjoying getting to know each other's culture.

During the winter break, the campus gets pretty quiet with most students gone. If your student is still in town, it's a good opportunity for you to spend time together and to celebrate the holidays.

If you are having trouble contacting your student, please call:

Layla, 232-9691 or

Office of International Programs,
491-5919.

SOUP NIGHTS

The Soup Nights on Dec 18, 25, Jan 1 and 8 are especially for the students who stay in Fort Collins during the semester break. There will be two pots of soup, bread, fruit or desserts and anything else that people bring to share.

Community members are invited to participate in this most enjoyable small, friendly winter evening around the fireplace.

Jane, 226-2554
