

DECEMBER 2010

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

December 14th 7-9pm
Main Library, 201 Peterson

Note: No presentation at Harmony

Indonesia

Please join Lyssa Lombardo for a presentation about her travels to Indonesia and her discovery of Jakarta and Bali and how she fell in love with the country and its people. She learned to live in a completely alien society, learned their customs, language, and a whole new way of life in less than two months and then she left to return to the plush living in the United States.

Mark, intlibrary@fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS

During the holiday break, many of the international students will not be travelling and will remain in Fort Collins, perhaps feeling a bit lonely. Check to see if your student has things to do and places to go and perhaps invite him/her to some of your Christmas and holiday activities. Some students are still waiting for an International Friend. Call Layla at 237- 4923 to become a Friend.

Jean, friends@fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org

CONVERSATIONAL ENGLISH CLASSES

Learners of all levels are welcome.

Mondays, December 6 & 13
Aggie Village Center
500 W. Prospect
9:30-11 am

Peg, 482-6544 or Ruth, 223-7428

Wednesdays, December 1, 8, 15

University Village Center
1600 W. Plum
9:30-11 am

Karen, 282-9015

A SUPERB INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR

Thank you to everyone who helped to make the Bazaar such a success! Appreciation goes to those who donated and gathered items, sorted and priced, moved everything to Lory, set up the display, sold items, cashiered, monitored the silent auction and cleaned up afterwards! Nancy Murray, bazaar coordinator.

GLOBAL AMBASSADORS

Next month, we will be at Polaris Expeditionary Learning School discussing Taiwan, Japan and China, and at CSU consumer behavior class discussing Europe and Asia. Thank you to all the new speakers for our program!

Sudeshini, globalambassadors@fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB (FAC)

International House Lobby
1400 W. Elizabeth, 6-7:30 pm

December 3: Serbia Night
Come and learn about Serbia where food preparation is a strong tradition.

December 10: Make a Gingerbread House

Did you know that Gingerbread was originally brought to Europe in 992 by an Armenian monk?

December 17: Soup Night
Hot soup, bread, dessert and conversation will be served at small gatherings. Feel free to bring something to share.

December 24: Soup Night

December 31: Soup Night and Potluck! What a way to Pre-game before bringing in the New Year!

Steve, fac@fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Snowshoeing: Beginner Level
December 4

Experience the fun of learning to snowshoe in the spectacular beauty of the Rocky Mountain National Park. Cost: $20 per adult, payable in advance

Ashish Sharma, ashish2000@gmail.com

2010 WORLD UNITY FAIR COOKBOOK

Were you one of the thousands of people who came to the World Unity Fair this year? Perhaps the fire alarm distracted you from purchasing our 2010 World Unity Fair cookbook? Or maybe you were unable to attend, but would really like to learn how to make the food featured at this event? Don't worry! The 2010 World Unity Fair Cookbooks will be on sale until December 10.

The 2010 World Unity Fair Cookbook features all of recipes of the food sold at the World Unity Fair. Don't miss the opportunity to learn how to create those delicious cultural foods at home. Each cookbook is $5 and the proceeds go toward the cost of the World Unity Fair. To arrange your order, please email Jenn Christ at Jennifer.Christ@colostate.edu with your name, order amount, and phone number by December 10.

STUDENTS WILL SOON BE NEEDING A HOME-STAY

New international students will begin arriving soon after the new year and some of the former home-stay families or individuals have already offered your homes for a few days until the student's housing is ready. Although we don't expect to have a great many, we are always looking for additional hosts. We know you will really enjoy this shared experience with someone often brand-new to the U.S.

Call Karen at 282-9015 or Nancy at 237-0685