

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

June 8 Main Library
201 Peterson, 7-9 pm

June 24 Harmony Library
4616 S. Shields, 7-9 pm

Balkan Republics-- Croatia, Bosnia, Slovenia

Klaus Lorenz will present three Balkan Republics. From the Croatian Riviera to the Alps in Slovenia natural beauty will unfold through some of Central Europe's most magnificent landscapes. We stroll atop the city walls in the Croatian town of Dubrovnik. On the Istrian Peninsula, we tour the hillside town of Rovinj, which overlooks an island dotted seascape. In Bosnia and Herzegovina, we will visit the town of Mostar. This town is known all over the world for its bridge built by Turks in the 16th century.

HOME-STAY FAMILIES NEEDED

Give yourself and your family the gift of hosting a new international student for several days in your home when they first arrive and need your caring assistance. Enjoy that first cup of coffee in the morning together and learn about each other while sitting at your kitchen table. To find out more about the Home-stay Program or to sign up, please contact Karen Smith, 282-9015.

CONVERSATIONAL ENGLISH CLASSES

There are no regular classes during the summer. Classes will resume at Aggie Village Center and University Village Center in September. Plan to attend the BBQ's this summer for a great opportunity to practice your English.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB (FAC)

International House
1400 W. Elizabeth, 6-7:30 pm

Please join us at the International House every Friday night from June 4th to August 20th for our weekly potluck BBQ's! Both beef and veggie burgers will be provided with all the trimmings and also please bring a food dish to share or make a donation, either at the event or on-line at the FCIC website. During the final phase of the construction of the I-House lobby we will need to be creative as to where we are cooking and eating. The location may be on the front lawn and of course if it rains we will be inside.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS

Do you want to travel around the world? The world is coming to your doorstep this August. Over 200 new international students will bring their cultures and perspectives to CSU. Here is your chance to experience vicariously another part of the world. Tell your friends about being an International Friend. With 200 students coming, we will need more community people to get involved. Contact us at www.fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org, click on Programs, then International Friends, then Friendship Program, or call 491-7398 to leave a message.
