

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

November 9 Main Library
 201 Peterson, 7-9 pm

Note: No presentation at Harmony

Scotland

Join Klaus Lorenz for a presentation on Scotland. He will take us to Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. We walk through the home of Mary, Queen of Scots and in the Grampian Mountains we see Cawdor castle; setting for Shakespeare's Macbeth. In the Orkney Islands we see fantastic remains of 5000 year old Neolithic villages and Orkney's Stonehenge. Our journey ends in Glasgow.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS

Imagine this: you are in a country where the language you are hearing is only vaguely familiar, the food offered isn't what you're used to, and even the smells are different. In such a situation, wouldn't it feel wonderful to have a friend nearby, explaining things?

If you would like to be that friend, sign up to be an International Friend to a student/scholar at www.fortcollinsinternationalcenter.org/programs.

GLOBAL AMBASSADORS

Members of Global Ambassadors participated at the Poudre School District 101 event. Teachers and parents who attended were impressed by our commitment to provide meaningful cross-cultural experiences. There have been many requests and we are recruiting more international students and community members as presenters to meet the demand. If you or any of your friends are interested, please visit our website to sign up.
