

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

Tuesday, May 10, 7-9pm
Main Library, 201 Peterson

Thursday, May 26, 7-9pm
Harmony Library, 4616 Shields

Ethiopia

Please join Janet Lee for her presentation about her work with Ethiopian nationals and U.S. Peace Corps Volunteers serving in the Mekelle Tigray Region. They created three school library partnerships, a Donkey Mobile Library, and Mekelle's only children's library. Janet is a Technical Services Librarian at Regis University in Denver, and a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS

Graduation

Help your student with a graduation party, attend the ceremony and perhaps meet their family.

Home-stay Families Needed!

Students coming from other countries during August find that spending those first few days with an American family is a wonderful way to start their CSU experience. Home-stay hosts offer a bed and breakfast from 3-5 days to students whose housing is not yet available. Karen, 282-9015.

SHREDDING FUNDRAISER EVENT
Saturday, May 7, 9am – 1pm

Got Shredding?
Don't dread the shred!

Let us take care of it for you! A secure shredding truck and handling personnel are being donated by Apex Shredding. Come to the CSU parking lot on the NW corner of Lake and College, across from the flower gardens in front of the University Center for the Arts. This is a fund raising event sponsored through the Office of International Programs to support FCIC programs. While we cannot charge to securely shred your documents, we are suggesting a $5 donation per box, bin or bag of materials to be shredded.

You may want to shred these items. Old checks, bills, bank statements, credit offers, junk mail, medical records, old tax returns, pay stubs, payroll records, contracts, loans, textbooks, and phone books.
